The Jewish Music Festival is a program of the Jewish Community Center of the East Bay

You don't have to be Jewish to get your heart rate up with the soul-stirring mix of klezmer (Eastern European Jewish folk music) and Romani (Gypsy) music premiering at the Opening Night of the 22nd Jewish Music Festival, America's leading festival of Jewish music.

The Festival opens its 22nd season with new work by Emmy Award-winning Bay Area composer and musician Dan Cantrell, starring Kitka, a world-renowned women vocal ensemble and a dozen virtuosic players from both traditions Thursday, March 8th at the First Congregational Church of Berkeley, 2345 Channing Way, in Berkeley at 7:30 pm.

Other Festival highlights include Bay Area premieres of internationally acclaimed groups from Argentina and Italy, including the Lerner/Moguilevsky Duo/ Klezmer Buenos Aires—a show-stopping virtuosic duo who bring klezmer, jazz improvisation and tango to new heights, 7:30 pm, Sunday March 10th, at the Thrust Stage, Berkeley Repertory Theatre, 2025 Addison St., Berkeley.

One of Italy's premiere Early Music groups, Ensemble Lucidarium, makes its Bay Area debut showcasing pure energy on period instruments with "La Istorica de Purim," First Congregational Church of Berkeley, Thursday, March 15th, 7:30 pm

From Renaissance elegance, the Festival gets down with Pharaoh's Daughter a prize-winning group that blends a psychedelic sensibility with a pan-Mediterranean sensuality, Saturday, March 17, 8 pm, Thrust Stage, Berkeley Repertory Theatre, and Diaspora Blues, displaying the edgy notes of jazz masters Steven Bernstein and Peter Apfelbaum, also at Berkeley Rep, Sunday March 18, 7:30 pm. Aires de Sefarad, new music based on Judeo-Spanish songs, Israeli classical mandolin artist Avi Avital, a Community Music Day, for all ages, complete with an Instrument Pettin Zoo, and more fill out the stellar program. Ticket sales range from $12-26, depending on the event.
